

Team's Resumes or Short Bios

Dr. Wandeler is an associate professor in research methods and statistics at California State University. He got a Ph.D. in personality and positive psychology at the University of Zurich, Switzerland. He was a visiting scholar at Stanford University. He studied the development of hope and learning achievement, the equity of the Swiss educational system, and the quality of the career and technical education system in Switzerland. He has participated as a co-researcher with the Boys and Men of Color (BMOC) project for the California Endowment. In this project he participated with various community organizations and reported findings back to the BMOC youth leadership meetings. This work led to the formation of the Fresno youth city council and the youth advisory committee to the Fresno City police chief. He is a certified trainer of teachers in the eduScrum method.